

Geelong Psychology Services

and

Werribee Psychology Services

We provide trauma and forensic psychological services including assessment, diagnosis and treatment using evidence based therapies in a range of psychological issues including:

- Anxiety
- Depression
- Stress
- Trauma of psychological and physical work injury, motor vehicle injury and victims of crime
 - Life, work and family crises including lifestyle issues, work performance, change, crises, catastrophe, communication, confidence building and assertiveness, conflict resolution, conciliation and mediation.
 - Bullying, intimidation, victimization and sexual harassment etc

Court Reports

David Sullivan is particularly involved in psychological assessment and report writing in all issues of a legal nature for use in jurisdictions including the Magistrates' Court, County Court, Family Court, Federal Circuit Court, Children's Court, Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal, Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, Administrative Appeals Tribunal, Social Security Appeals Board and the VCAT Guardianship List.

David Sullivan has more than thirty years of forensic experience in the preparation of reports of psychological assessment for legal matters and in court appearances.

CONFIDENTIALITY IS OF COURSE ASSURED